

ALEXANDRIA, VA.
FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 28.

Mr. ROWELL, chairman of the electoral committee of the U. S. House of Representatives, says there are three contested election cases still before his committee, but that he will present reports on them as soon as possible; also that the Force bill must be passed by the coming session of Congress, and that if passed it can not be rendered operative by the refusal of the next Congress to make an appropriation for executing it, as special provision is made in it against any such contingency. It is highly probable that the men who after Senator Langston and Miller cried out, "give us another nigger," will succeed in turning three more fairly elected democratic congressmen out of their seats, as they have Mr. Speaker Reed to assist them; nor is the passage of the Force bill at all improbable, though such action would necessitate a repeal of the prescriptive rules of the Senate, as the republican majority in that body seem to agree with their colleague, Mr. Sherman, that anything is justifiable in law and morals that will beat down the democratic party. Those men should not allow their spite to make them oblivious of the fact that retribution for evil deeds is inevitable.

THOUGH Gov. Pattison carried Penney, varia at the recent election, Col. Black, who ran for Lieutenant-Governor on the same ticket with him, failed to do so; but nobody has yet said, nor has the slightest ground to say, that the successful candidate for Governor had anything to do with defeating the unsuccessful candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. Ex-Secretary Edicott should not attribute the fact that Gov. Hill carried New York in 1888, though ex-President Cleveland lost it at the same election, to any thing the former did or did not do at that election, as he has no more ground for doing so than any of the friends of Col. Black would have for attributing his defeat to Gov. Pattison.

EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND wrote a letter to Mr. Acres of Kansas City, urging the defeat of Senator Ingalls. Mr. Acres, to further that desired object, published this letter. Mr. Cleveland then said Mr. Acres was a "fool" for publishing the letter. To this Mr. Acres replied that he asked Mr. Cleveland by telegraph whether or not he should publish the letter, and received permission to do so. Mr. Cleveland would do himself no harm if he would stop talking and writing. The little credit he got from his famous interview with Mr. Crawford and his denial thereof has not been forgotten.

COMMISSIONER RAUM says the deficit in the pension appropriation for the current year will be only thirty-four million more than the estimates. He bases this latter estimate upon the expenditures of the first quarter of the year. But that is wrong is proved by the fact that a great many more examiners and clerks are employed now than during the quarter referred to, that consequently more pensions are issued now than then, and that of necessity the expenditures will be greater during the latter than the earlier quarters of the year.

THE FRIENDS of Mr. Polk, of North Carolina, chief of the Farmers' Alliance, deny the report that that gentleman is quietly helping the re-election of Senator Ingalls of Kansas. But Congressman Peters, republican, of Kansas, says it is true. For the reputation of the Alliance, to say nothing of other things, it is hoped the denial is correct, and as Mr. Peters is a reckless partisan, it probably is.

BY THE death of Mr. Elyson, of the Richmond Dispatch, Richmond has lost a valuable citizen, and the press of Virginia an estimable member, whose departure will not soon be forgotten.

FROM WASHINGTON.

(Special Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 28, 1890.
Major S. P. B. y, of Fauquier county, was today appointed special agent of the census bureau to collect and prepare information respecting the tobacco industry in the States of West Virginia and Tennessee. The Mr. y, who is a republican of long standing, is very reticent on political matters, and says his party has not yet sufficiently recovered from the shock of its recent defeat to be arranging plans for the future.

That Congressman Springer's idea that sectionalism must be introduced into the organization of the next House is not supported by at least some northern democratic members of that body, is proved by the fact that Messrs. Chipman of Michigan, and Tracey of New York, both now here, don't hesitate to avow themselves as in favor of Mr. Mills for Speaker.

The condition of Gen. Wicks, who had an apoplectic stroke on the street here night before last, is somewhat improved to-day. He has partially regained his consciousness. It is feared, however, that his case is hopeless. His brother John had a similar stroke and died in Richmond when a member of the Confederate Congress.

The officers of the Brazilian squadron, now at New York, were formally presented to the President at the White House this afternoon. The Blue Room was specially decorated for the occasion, as was the State dining room in which lunch was served.

Among the members of the House who have returned is Mr. Lester from the Danville, Va., district. Like the Senators from his State, Mr. Lester says it is too soon to be talking about the nominee of the next national democratic convention, but that as some people will do so, others have the same right. In his opinion Mr. Cleveland deserves credit for his advocacy of low tariff and his veto of the dependent pensions bill, but that his opposition to the removal of

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The French government will not permit the importation into France of Dr. Koch's lymph.

Bernard Steel, of Jersey City, N. J., yesterday threw his wife out of a window and she was dangerously injured.

The debt of France is estimated at $3,300,000,000, and is declared to be the largest public debt in the world.

Rear Admiral da Silveira and staff, of the Brazilian navy, reached Washington yesterday evening and to-night will be given a reception by the President.

The fact that the republicans, instead of the democrats, have a majority of one in the Wisconsin State Senate may prevent the democrats from reappointing the State.

The leading public feature of Thanksgiving day in Baltimore was the parade of the Maryland National Guard. There was a review by the Governor at Belger Park. The guard made a good showing.

It is given out already that the Ingalls method of winning re-election to the United States Senate from Kansas, will be to contest the election of the Farmers' Alliance candidates, who seem likely to be chosen.

Prof. Chas. E. Gatchell, of Ann Arbor, Mich., declares that the so-called mind-reading is a trick, and in the presence of a committee he performed the same feats for which Alexander Johnstone has become famous.

The advance in freight rates on oranges from all basing points in Florida for northern and eastern markets has gone into effect. The advance amounts to thirty-three per cent, and will cause an advance in the price of oranges.

General Miles states that the treacherous Chief Short Bull and 2,500 of his followers are coming toward the Pine Ridge agency, but that General Brooke and his command are prepared to receive them. The report that a fight with the Indians had taken place is denied.

A carriage containing Charles Lisherness, his wife and child, was struck by the night train from Bath, near Crowley's, Me., last evening. The engine scooped the seat from the carriage, and when the train was stopped the three were found sitting on the seat of the carriage, resting on the cow-catcher.

The Norwegian bark Neptune, at London from Quebec, reports that, while lying to during a gale off Dungeness Sunday evening, she saw a large, west-bound steamer turn to the eastward, capsizing, and founder. A heavy sea was running at the time. No trace of the steamer's crew has been found.

The river Shannon, in Ireland, has overflowed its banks at Athlone, and the town, which is situated on both sides of the river, is submerged. Hundreds of acres of farmland are under water and the crops are destroyed. A large number of cattle have perished. Many families are rendered homeless by the flood.

The great foot-ball game played at Brooklyn yesterday for the intercollegiate championship was won by Yale, the score standing Yale 32, Princeton 0. The game was witnessed by 25,000 people. Just before the playing commenced the big open stand on the grounds suddenly collapsed, crushing down with it entire load of 2,000 human beings, many of whom were seriously injured.

The authorities of May's Landing, N. J., are now beginning to take an interest in the peculiar circumstances attending the apparent death of George W. Fay, whose body has not yet been buried, although it is now ten days since a physician declared him dead. Fay was a spiritualist, and his three sisters who survive are also of the same persuasion and have been told by the spirits that their brother still lives.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

The Court of Appeals was not in session yesterday and will not meet again until Monday.

The dwelling and several out-houses of Mrs. Dr. A. L. Durrett were destroyed by fire near Spotsylvania Courthouse yesterday.

Last week Mr. Broadie Sullivan, of Stafford, found and "took" a beehive near Potomac run which contained seventy-five pounds of marketable honey. There were eight feet of solid honey in the tree.

It is announced that Rev. Dr. McByde, rector of the Lee Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church at Lexington, will be called to fill the pulpit of the Grace street church at Richmond, made vacant by the election of Dr. Jackson to be Assistant Bishop of Alabama.

Mr. H. K. Elyson, secretary and treasurer of the Richmond Dispatch Company, died yesterday in Richmond after a brief illness. Mr. Elyson had been connected with the Dispatch for many years. He had represented Richmond as sheriff, mayor, and member of the House of Delegates. He was president of the board of trustees of the Richmond College, and father of the present mayor of Richmond.

Charles T. Holtzman, deputy clerk of the county court of Page, left Lacey by buggy yesterday with Miss Mary Davis, the trip presumably to be a ride out in the country, but instead they took the northbound train at Overall, twelve miles north, and went to Hagerstown, Md., where they were married. The first intimation which the family had was a telegram from the groom announcing the marriage. The elopers returned on the 2:30 train and were accorded the honors of the town by the citizens.

THE PRISON ASSOCIATION SCHOOL.—At the request of the managers of the institution referred to the following is published:

The Industrial School, established by the Prison Association of Virginia, is now ready to receive white youths who are under sentence for crime. They will not take charge of boys whose parents are not able to control them. For the latter there will be a charge of $3 per week, which includes tuition, board, and clothes.

It is the object of the association to give these boys a good business education, and by moral training and kind treatment to turn them from a life of vice and make them good and useful citizens. Four hours a day are given to school work, four hours to industrial work, six hours to movement, meals, recreation, study, and other exercises, leaving nine to ten hours for sleep.

Applications for admission should be made to the Secretary, Rev. W. B. Williams, 621 north Tenth street, Richmond, Va.

QUEER WAYS OF CONNECTICUT EQUIRELS.—Squirrels have queer ways in Connecticut. As Theodore E. Beard was watering his horse at the trough in Wells Hollow the other day a squirrel capered across the road, climbed up the forward wagon wheel, thence over the dashboard, and skipped to the back of the horse, where it cocked itself up and took a cool survey of things. It remained on the horse's back for a moment, then retraced its course, climbed down the wagon wheel, and was off across the street in a jiffy. Mr. Beard might have captured the animal, but was interested in seeing what the redskin proposed to do. Into Main street, Norwich, came a gray squirrel not long ago, and Ferd Nowak, a newsman, cornered the animal to a store entrance and captured it alive. He still has it in a cage.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

George Dickey, clerk of the New Hampshire Legislature, has forwarded his resignation to Governor Goodell.

The Safe Harbor Rolling Mill at Lancaster, Pa., has shut down for an indefinite period. About 175 men are thrown out of work.

James M. Wisse, a well-known tobaccoist, nephew of ex-Governor Henry A. Wise, and brother of Congressman George D. Wise, died in Richmond this morning.

The schedules in the assignment of the firm of John T. Walker, Son & Co., were filed in New York to-day. The liabilities are $2,094,023, and actual assets $1,009,540.

A shooting affray occurred last night at the village of Casey, Ill., between J. M. Gooch, a leading merchant, and William Roseberry, a saloon keeper. Both men were shot in the stomach, Gooch fatally.

All the coal miners in Alabama, some 8,000 in number, have been ordered on strike Monday, December 1, because of a refusal of an advance in wages. Some of the men are not pleased at the order, but the leaders say the men will all go out.

Judge Virgil Porter, one of the best known men in northwestern Missouri, was terribly slashed with a large pocket knife at Plattburg Wednesday by W. H. Lyons, a prominent young attorney. The cause of the difficulty is unknown.

Martin D. Lopp, who was convicted of murder in the first degree for killing his wife July 4, was sentenced to death penalty in New York to-day. The time set for the execution is within the week beginning January 3, and Sing Sing the place.

An elegant stone residence patterned after the feudal castles of the Old World, situated on a high hill at Newtown, Conn., and owned by P. Lorillard Reynolds, a Scotchman, was destroyed by fire this morning.

The house and valuable contents were completely destroyed. Loss is estimated at not less than $100,000.

Three men from Wilcott, N. Y., went to Soles yesterday hunting. They went out on the bay in a boat and have not been seen since. The boat was found on the beach with a hole in her bottom this morning.

Henry H. Spicker, late bookkeeper for the St. Louis Tribune, and who has a wife in Germany, as well as one in St. Louis, is a defaulter and has left for parts unknown.

Haunted by a Ghost.

Pine Brook, a northern suburb of Scranton, Pa., is in a state of great excitement over some ghostly manifestations. For the past six weeks the families of Mr. Martin Neilson and Mrs. Catherine Walsh have been unable to sleep on account of strange noises, which are heard every night about 12 o'clock in the front room of the Walsh apartments.

The noises consist of rappings, foot-steps, slamming doors and other mysterious sounds. The most careful investigation failed to discover the cause, and the superstitious agency. On last Wednesday night both families, with several of the neighbors, gathered in the kitchen, determined to unearth the mystery. About midnight a shuffling of feet was heard in the front room, accompanied by a spasmodic rapping on a panel of the door. The men rushed into the room, but they found nothing to which the strange noises could be attributed. Furthermore, a watch was kept on the outside of the house, but no one was seen to enter or go out. The windows and doors which had been nailed were found intact, and the vigilant watchers were only more puzzled than ever. When they were about to leave the room one of the men advanced to look out of the window, and to his horror saw an apparition, which almost transfixed him to the spot.

Mrs. Walsh and Mrs. Neilson also witnessed it and almost fainted at the sight. Outlined in the darkness, just outside the window, was the bust of a youth, with golden hair, fair features and large, burning eyes. It disappeared as suddenly as it came, leaving no trace of its presence. The Walsh family moved out of the house Thursday, and the Neilson family are also preparing to leave.

The building is about 50 years old, and was one of the first erected in that locality. About 18 years ago a young man met his death by falling from the window, and to this day the circumstances attending his death have never been made clear.

WHY WIVES PICK THEIR HUSBANDS' POCKETS.—The result of the prevalent system of denying wives any money is that they pick their husbands' pockets and suggest innumerable frauds to their tradesmen in order to secure money for presents, or for collections, or for their clothes. The result of this is that the mother, being obliged to lie and steal in order to get any money of her own, breeds children who are born with inherited predisposition to dishonesty and lying.

"They are gentle, who do gentle deeds;" and among these can also be classed O'Donnell's Catarrh Cure, that gentle but positive remedy for nasal Catarrh. Price only 25 cents.

All mothers who have used it, say that Dr. B. L. A. Baby Syrup is the best medicine for children's teething. It relieves at once and costs only 25 cents.

In order to accommodate those who have not time to pay their State taxes during the day, Treasurer Harlow will keep his office open during this week from 7 to 9 o'clock at night.

MARRIED.

At the parsonage of the First Baptist Church, this city, Wednesday evening, November 26th, 1890, by Rev. I. M. Mercer, Mr. JOHN M. WELLS and Miss HANNAH A. APPELEY, all of this city.

DIED.

On Thursday, November 27, 1890, HENRY SCHAESELE, in the 33rd year of his age, died at his late residence, 1000 G Street, between Pitt and Adams streets. Friends of the family are invited to attend.—(Washington papers please copy.)

Died in the Lord, at 8:30 o'clock, on November 27, Mrs. MARY A. NEWMAN. Her funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the residence of her brother, Mr. W. H. Windsor, on upper King street. Friends and relatives are invited to attend.—(Washington papers please copy.)

D. H. N. NARMORE, Alexandria's Photographer, will for a short time make and sell CRAYON PORTRAITS on weekly and monthly payments to responsible persons. Call and see specimens at 321 King street.

At the members and those wishing to become members of the Alexandria Literary and Dramatic Club are requested to meet on Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock at the hall over Mr. Paill's shoe store, third floor, in order to discuss business and other matters, and to ascertain what number of members will belong to the above club.

Ingalls' Desperate Game

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 28.—An interesting complication has arisen in connection with the election of a U. S. Senator to succeed Senator Ingalls, and if the plan of action proposed by the republicans is successfully carried out it would seem that the Senator would succeed himself. An application has been made to the Supreme Court to compel the State board of canvassers to give certificates of election to nineteen delegates who were elected under the provision of the constitution which says that each county which has two hundred and fifty voters is entitled to a representative. The constitution at the same time limits the number of members to 125, so that in order to seat the 19 delegates from the sparsely settled counties it would be necessary to drop an equal number of members-elect from the more populous counties. If the court issues the mandamus and the 19 delegates are seated they will vote for Ingalls, as they are so pledged, which would give him 53 votes on joint ballot, the number to elect. If they are not seated and Senator Ingalls is defeated the plan of the republicans is to contest the election of his successful opponent in the U. S. Senate on the ground that the delegates were entitled to their seats and that their vote would have elected him. If they are seated and an equal number of members elect are not dropped, the House will number 143 members, or 18 more than the constitution provides for, and a contest will be instituted in the Senate because the Legislature will be an unconstitutional body.

Foreign News.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—A heavy snow storm prevails throughout England. The fall is so heavy as to seriously delay traffic on the railways.

The Star (home rule) opposes the Irish land bill introduced in the House of Commons last night. The measure, it says, is based upon fraud and is sure to end in disaster.

PARIS, Nov. 28.—Deputy Raynaud, the managing director of the Banque d'Etat, who has absconded and is said to have committed suicide, carried away with him 1,000,000 francs which had been subscribed for a loan to be issued by the municipality of Macon.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Lord Randolph Churchill is hurrying to London from Italy, believing that the present crisis in political affairs will hasten the dissolution of Parliament.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 28.—A violent shock of earthquake was felt to-day throughout the Danubian valley. The inhabitants were panic-stricken and fled in terror from their houses. No serious damage is reported.

The Consumption Cure.

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—Dr. Bergmann in a lecture last night declared that the secret of the composition of Prof. Koch's curative lymph was the exclusive property of Prof. Koch. Dr. Bergmann illustrated the degrees of fever after each injection and explained the quantity of lymph required in the various cases. The number of physicians coming to Berlin to study the Koch method has been increased. There were 132 arrivals yesterday. The government of Prussia will shortly introduce a bill in the Diet providing for the establishment of an institute of bacteriology, at which Prof. Koch may pursue his studies. Connected with the institute will be five infirmaries containing 150 beds. After allotting to Prof. Koch an adequate grant for his discovery the government will undertake the work of producing the lymph.

Mr. Parnell Will Stick.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The manifesto which Mr. Parnell promised to issue to-day, dealing with all the questions involved in the present political crisis, was made public this afternoon. It definitely settles that Mr. Parnell will not voluntarily retire from the leadership of the Irish parliamentary party. The manifesto is of great length, and sets forth why, in Mr. Parnell's opinion, it would be disastrous to the best interests of the party for him to withdraw at the present time. Mr. Parnell dismisses his political opponents and appeals to the people of Ireland to sustain him in the stand he has taken.

Explosion.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Nov. 28.—To-day while some workmen were engaged in cutting a channel through rock in this city, they placed several sticks of dynamite on the top of a portable boiler employed to furnish steam for a drill, to thaw out. A terrible explosion followed, wrecking the engine and shattering the windows of dwellings in the vicinity. One of the heavy wheels of the engine was driven with such force against E. J. Mangin, a laborer, that he was instantly killed. He was unmarried and 28 years of age.

Mr. Parnell.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—The Tribune special cablegram from London says: "It seems certain that Parnell will not retire from the leadership of the Irish party, no matter what pressure may be brought to bear upon him. Gladstone's position thus becomes more difficult than ever, and it is possible that he will announce the impossibility of carrying the home rule scheme any further during his life-time and propose a reunion of his party on the basis of the old radical programme, leaving Ireland out altogether."

The Indians.

WICHITA, Kas., Nov. 28.—Reports from Fort Reno tell of increased excitement among the ghost dancers and considerable accessions to their ranks. The more excited redskins are cutting themselves with spears and knives, and the sight of blood has had the effect of greatly arousing the warriors' spirits. Last night several lodges of braves mounted their ponies, approached the fort and dared the soldiers to come out.

A New Line of Steamers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—It is reported in Wall street to-day that negotiations are in progress between President Ingalls of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, and J. Bruce Ismay, the American agent of the White Star Line, looking to the establishment of a direct line of steamers from Newport News, Va., to Liverpool, England.

Irish Affairs.

Mr. Fa four, chief secretary for Ireland, has introduced into the House of Commons a bill enabling tenants to purchase land in that country. The bill is practically the same measure that was offered in Parliament last year. Mr. Labouchere moved an amendment against pledging the Imperial credit for the purchase of land until the country should have given its consent at a general election. Mr. Labouchere's amendment was rejected by a vote of 268 to 117. Mr. Gladstone, Sir William Vernon Harcourt and Mr. Morley walked out before the vote was taken. Mr. Parnell and all the Parnell members voted without a dissent. The bill was then given its first reading amid cheers of the Government supporters. Parnell, in going from his seat to record his vote on Labouchere's amendment, had to pass the Liberal benches, and it was remarked that his late administration ignored him.

After the House rose a hurried meeting of the Nationalists was called in the afternoon-room. Mr. Parnell was not present. The meeting was held ostensibly for the purpose of arriving at an agreement not to mention recent events publicly until after the meeting on Monday, but great secrecy was observed as to what was really done. It is reported from London that the Irish members of the Parliament have a more favorable feeling now for Parnell than they had Wednesday, and that they will sustain him at the meeting to be held Monday next.

A STEAMER BURNED.—The magnificent steamer T. P. Leather, the finest stern-wheel steamboat plying the Mississippi, caught fire just after leaving Fort Adams, 20 miles above Bayou Sara, at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning, on her way down the river. The boat's head was turned to shore, and all the passengers were rescued, but the vessel and her cargo of 2,500 barrels of cotton was totally consumed. Four men were on board and the chamberlain perished in the flames. The Leather was comparatively a new boat owned by Capt. T. P. Leather, who is known from Maine to the Gulf in connection with Captain Cowden's celebrated oil-sket scheme.

FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN BY CANOE.—E. J. Rappaport, of New York, arrived at Astoria, Ore., on Wednesday, having made the journey from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean in a canoe, with the exception of a short portage around the rapids. He left New York on April 1 last and traveled about 6,200 miles by water.

Senator Vance says he has no doubt of his re-election.

THE PULPIT AND THE STAGE.

Rev. F. M. Shourt, Pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mount, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and an sound and well, gaining 25 pounds in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks' Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption cures all ailments, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousands of friends is to urge them to try it."
